

OUR FAVOURITE FREE MUSEUMS IN LONDON

British Museum

Very close to Covent Garden, this museum is dedicated to human history, culture and art. It contains one of the largest permanent collection in the world, with more than 8 millions pieces, among which the Rosetta Stone, the Benin Bronzes and the Elgin Marbles.

National Gallery

Located in Trafalgar Square in the National Gallery are exposed more than 2000 paintings, some of them are dated in the 13th century. It is one of most visited in the world and you can discover works by Botticelli, Leonardo da Vinci, Renoir and Van Gogh.

Tate Modern

This museum is one of the most-visited at gallery in the world, containing modern and contemporary amazing works by artists such as Picasso, Modigliani and Matisse. Tate Modern is housed in the former Bankside Power Station.

OUR FAVOURITE FREE MARKETS IN LONDON

Camden Market

Considered as one of the most extravagant markets in London, Camden Market contains more than 1000 shops and stalls. You can find interesting objects regarding music, fashion, art and food as well. Opening time: every day, from 10 am to late (including bank holiday).

Borough Market

This market represents a source of British and International food products coming from all over the world. It is located in the heart of the city next to the London Bridge. Opening time: 10am – 5pm (Monday to Thursday), Friday 10am – 6pm, Saturday 8am – 5pm.

Portobello Road Market

Opened every day apart from Sunday, this market is located in the famous Portobello Road. It has become very famous for its antique during the last 60 years, however its origins are dated back to the 1800s.

OUR FAVOURITE FREE TOURS IN LONDON

Strawberry Walking Tours

You can choose among several tours that allow you to visit different part of the city, such as Soho, Jack the Ripper's zone, Street Art discovery, Harry Potter's most suggestive places and may others free tours. Tours are running every day and at the end you can make a donation.

London's Theatreland Walking Tour

Designed for theatres lovers, this tour take you back in time to the first theatre born in 1576 to reach The Globe, one of the most famous theatres in the UK where many Shakespeare's plays have been acted for the first time. The tour departs from St. Paul's Underground Station.

Old City of London Tour

During this tour you will explore the oldest streets in London beginning from the ones built by the Roman Empire, to the newest buildings in London, among which there is the new Millennium Bridge. Tour departs from outside the Temple Tube Station.

OUR FAVOURITE FREE SIGHTSEEN IN LONDON

Big Bang and Westminster

Big Ben is the nickname for the Great Bell of the clock at the north end of the Palace of Westminster, which represents the Parliament of the UK. You can admire them

Buckingham Palace – Changing the Guard

Also known as Guard Mounting, the change of the guard takes place outside Buckingham Palace from 10.45am and lasts around 45 minutes. The ceremony takes place every Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Sunday, weather permitting.

Hyde Park

London's Hyde Park is one of the greatest city parks in the world, with its 350 acres. It has something for everyone: swimming, boating, cycling and skating. The Park has two lakeside restaurants as well.

